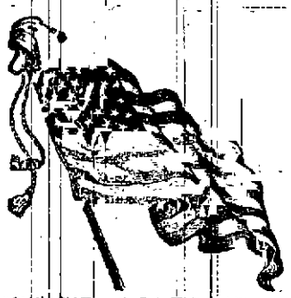
WEDNESDAY MORNING, AUG. 26, 1863



No flag but the Old Flag—the Red, White and Blue,
With the stars of a Union unbroken and true!
Arise and defend it! ye sons of the brave,
Whose blood bought the banner your valor must save

By Telegraph.

The dispatch this morning furnishes further details of the attack upon the defences of Charleston, and gives encouraging reason to believe that before this the work is over. We must soon know.

The reports from the Army of the Potomac leave room for anxiety lest Gen. Meade may be pressed to a severe engagement before his preparations are perfected. Gen. Lee seems determined to fight on Federal ground, and will probably push his way with furious desperation. In this connection we quote the following from the correspondence of the Philadelphia Inquirer, which indicates the suspicion as to Lee's movements, that has been entertained at Washington:

Several weeks ago (you and your readers will recollect it) I was among the first to give timely warning of the intended rebel invasion of Maryland and Pennsylvania.

What I now say, though not resting upon any confidence with the gentleman who reported to me the information, yet is drawn from other confidential sources, connected with my own observation and judgment, which may, to say the least of it, be worthy of consideration. I am constrained to believe that another and a third invasion of Maryland, if not Pennsylvania, is still intended and contemplated by Gen. Lee and his rebel hosts.—It may not be attempted immediately, yet there can be no certainty how soon. The rebels, it is well known, have had, and no doubt still have, a fixed desire and determination to capture Washington. The accomplishment of such a triumph would be the only thing that could compensate for their late terrible reverses. There is in fact nothing else left for them to do. They must either win at and be successful in a master stroke, or abandon forever the idea and hope of achieving their independence. My impression, is therefore, and I do not speak without due consideration, that Gen. Lee will, as soon as the Potomac falls sufficiently to be fordable at various convenient points, if his army is sufficiently strengthened, make another desperate attempt at the invasion of Maryland.

It is doubtful if much regard will be paid to Richmond, because, under the existing crippled and forlorn condition of the rebel would be Confederacy, her capital, situated as it is, can be of no great account. If they do not accomplish something very soon that city cannot be held at any rate, and the entire rebel army will be necessitated to retire into the cotton States, and there concentrate for a last dying struggle. It is rapidly approaching the critical moment with the insurgents, when they must either achieve victory, decided, or submit to the inevitable fate of subjugation. Hence we may expect them to be adventurous and desperate to the furthest extreme.

The Great Abolitionist.

By the last news we learn that Jeff. Davis and his fellow conspirators have become Abolitionists on a larger scale than was ever dreamed of by northern fanatics. They have discovered that black men can fight, and have issued an emancipation proclamation, offering to negroes who will enlist in the cause of the rebellion, not only their liberty, but homesteads after the war is over. Think of this, northern Confederates, whose wrath has been boiling at a white heat, because the Government used negro sinews and muscle in the nation's defense! Southern chivalry, which so proudly declared it could never be conquered, now appeals to slaves to save it from ruin, and promises them, freedom and "the sacred soil," as a reward for their services. Where now are the sneers and curses uttered against Lincoln, who it was said, made a paper proclamation which could never reach a slave? What shall be said of Davis, the practical Abolitionist, whose words will reach every plantation and give to every bondman the opportunity of liberty? Or is it right and constitutional for negroes to aid rebellion, while it is a flagrant violation of law and Southern privileges, for them to defend the country?

The confession of weakness which the appeal of Davis makes, is full of serious meaning, and we believe that his plan will be found pregnant with most solemn consequences. Every musket in the hands of a slave may soon be aimed at the breast of the master who gave it to the slave. The romantic and extraordinary fidelity so much vaunted, will be tested, and we have no doubt with such results as will show that it has been an absurd and hollow pretense. True, there is no question that the negroes will fight, but we have no idea that, with but few exceptions, and under the most powerful constraint, there will be any victories won by the South over the nation's armies through the aid of negro services. Davis too late; the slaves already know too well how little confidence can be put in the promises or pledges of their taskmasters; they have heard—many of them—of the archrebel who once, on a high mountain, offered the kingdoms of this world and the glory of them in vain for worship and reverence. The devil in that case did not own what he proposed to give. The negroes pretty generally understand that their freedom and the land offered as a reward for treason, do not belong to Jeff. Davis, and will be very apt to say to him as was said to his master and prototype, "Get thee behind us, Satan." No, it is too late; the Confederacy has to no purpose acknowledged its utter inability to struggle with the Government, and it proposes to provide the surest means for its own destruction, for by its own act it is opening the way for a servile insurrection which will sweep it, with the traitors who compose it, from the face of the land they have cursed by their wickedness; and when the horrors and massacres which are certain to follow the placing of arms in the hands of slaves shall burst in their terrible havoc upon the doomed soil of the rebellion, they will be accounted a just and fearful judgment, invoked by its leaders, upon their own heads—the awful catastrophe of a tragedy of treason, crime and wickedness, such as the world never saw.

"BEWARE OF DOGS."—Our Southern brethren are becoming so straitened in their means that, as a matter of economy, they are disposed to exterminate even the dogs. The Columbus (Ga.) Sun has investigated the solemn question with great pains and accuracy. It estimates that in Dixie there are over a million of the canines, little and big, including only the four legged ones, which have tails also, and then with all the profound sagacity of a political economist, goes on:

It is quite evident that these dogs must eat; it is evident, also, that every ounce of bread they eat diminishes the amount of food just that much; and consequently as the supply is decreased, the price of what remains must increase. Suppose, for instance, that each dog will consume only one half ounce of bread per day—that is certainly a moderate estimate, but we desire to be clearly within the bounds of reason—then the million cats would consume 3,500,000 ounces per week, or 15,000,000 pounds per annum. At present prices, the bread thus consumed by these worthless dogs would amount to a sum not less than $4,000,000. This is the tribute we pay the dogs in the article of bread alone. How shall we estimate the amount of meat they consume, the amount of eggs they "suck," or the number of sheep they kill? Of how many pounds of wool, at three and a half dollars per pound, have these worthless canines deprived us? How many excellent pairs of cotton cards have our noble women sought in vain to purchase because the millions of dog skins have not been pulled from their worthless carcases, dressed and turned over to the manufacturer? Does this seem a subject too small to challenge the attention of our legislators, or are our sage representatives willing to pay the tribute for luxury afforded them by a pack of mangy canines! So far as we are concerned individually, we have well nigh arrived at a decision to vote for no man to represent the interests of his county in legislative assemblies who will not pledge himself hostile to this tremendous canine tribute.

A CALL FOR MARTIAL LAW OVER THE WHOLE CONFEDERACY.—The Richmond Enquirer of the 16th July says:

There are much more than 100,000 men in the Confederacy who have hired substitutes for service. They have paid for them from $300 to $3,000, and have up to this time avoided the risks of battle, and used their time in growing rich. Now, do these men estimate their country's freedom, each of them at his $300 or $3,000? When that sum had been paid, is all that they ever owed to their native land discharged forever? Are they willing to invest just so much to rescue their children from vassalage to the Yankee nation? Will they not bid a little higher? If not, we must have the levy en masse, and take them all. Then let anybody visit the neighborhood of General Winder's office. It is choked with crowds of cowardly wretches, calling themselves foreigners—Germans who were but too glad to get out from under the tyranny of their grand dukes and serene highnesses—Irishmen who long ago renounced with a malediction their allegiance to Queen Victoria—all crushing one another in the race to show "protections" from those very queens and serene highnesses, and so fly from the land that sheltered them in its utmost peril. We cannot estimate the number of such men in the whole Confederacy, but certainly they would make a corps d'armee. All these points, which are here only touched upon, the strengthening of our military organization, the application of martial law to the whole country, as in a state of siege—the absolute control of all trading (especially trading in drink), as within military lines—the abolition of substitution, exemption and foreign protections—the material enlargement of the President's power to revise elections of officers, and to make appointments and get rid of incompetent officers—these things form too large and momentous a subject to be disposed of in an article. For to-day we only desire to excite reflection upon them.

THE GERMANS OF OHIO DESERTING VALLANDIGHAM.—The German democratic organ at Cleveland has taken the name of Vallandigham from its columns and raised that of John Brough for Governor. The editor says, in explanation of his course:

"As will be noticed by our readers, we put to day at the head of our paper the name of Brough for Governor. This is no hasty step; but we have concluded, after mature consideration and consultation with many of our democratic friends, to lay aside, for the present, party differences, and by the utmost of our influence to aid to victory the party that advocates the suppression of the rebellion. The disgraceful scenes which a few days ago occurred in New York city prove that it requires the united efforts of all good citizens, without regard to party, to sustain the public peace and order, and it is most certainly the duty of every one who cares for the welfare of our country to put aside party considerations and to support our constitutional government."

MILITARY PRIZES.—The Governor, as chairman of the military auditors, gives notice that at the Brigade muster in Salem, next month, $75,00 premiums will be given to the best drilled company of Infantry, of Artillery and of Cavalry; and also that $50,00 will be given to the company of each arm ranking second best. Gen. Alvord, Major Winston and Captain Keeler have been invited to act as Judges. We hope Multnomah County will be honorably and successfully represented, and to insure this, our boys must keep "marching on." Doing nothing will win no prizes.

THE RIGHT WAY.—The city of Portland (Me.) is about to provide $300 for every man who shall be drafted from that city to serve in the armies of the Union, provided he stand the draft by going to the war himself, or by securing an accepted substitute. This is talking to the purpose, says the New York Tribune. Pay whatever is fair and just to recruit the national armies, but never a cent to cripple them.

MORE OPPOSITION.—The Dalles papers say that W. D. Bigelow will bring his mail boat over the Tumwater falls, to run from the Dalles to the Cascades.

THE WESTERN MEN.—A correspondent of the N. Y. Times, writing from Indianapolis July 13th, says:

I was passing through some little villages last week, near the line of the Bellefontaine railroad, when the telegrams came from the Governor, calling for men to meet Morgan's raid. It was incredible what numbers of powerful, brawny men at once massed together in the little villages and at the railroad station-houses. Sometimes a settlement of half a dozen houses would present a company of a hundred men. Where they came from was a mystery. It was in the midst of the wheat harvest, yet the sickle was literally thrown away in the field as the word came that Indiana was invaded. It seemed to me that there was a different air to these men from what there would be among our farmers in similar circumstances.

Our Eastern men would turn out but from high motives of party or the feelings of manhood, or sympathy for one another. These fellows evidently liked the idea of fighting; eyes sparkled and cheeks were aglow and muscles grasped the rifle with a force that meant harm to somebody, as they promised one another "to wipe Morgan out." It is an interesting thing to be able to observe the physique of our interior population, who seldom appear in cities. These men show a decidedly different type from the ordinary Eastern type, whether seen in New England, or in Ohio or Michigan. It must be the Kentucky and Tennessee blood that makes the difference. They are much handsomer men, with tall and powerful frames, not at all spare, and features quite regular, and a good healthy color. Southern habits, too, appeared everywhere among the people; everybody was on horseback, even the women and children; the cookery was Kentuckian, the accent Southern, and it struck me that the habit of yelling, whenever there were masses of men together, instead of cheering as our Northern men do, was a Southern peculiarity, as it is the world over—witness the French and Italian cry, compared with the English cheer.

PARTICULARS OF THE SURRENDER OF PORT HUDSON.—We have at length some particulars of the capitulation of Port Hudson. On the evening of July 7th, General Gardner sent out a flag of truce; he had heard of the capitulation of Vicksburg, and desired General Banks to give him such information as he might have concerning the truth or falsity of the rumor. General Banks sent him a copy of Gen. Grant's dispatch, giving the full particulars of the capitulation of Vicksburg. Gen. Gardner then expressed his willingness to surrender upon the same terms. General Banks declined, and announced that he would accept nothing but an unconditional surrender.

Disheartened and discouraged by the news he had received, General Gardner surrendered his forces unconditionally on the morning of July 8th. The garrison consisted of 6,000 effective men, in excellent condition. There were sixty pieces of artillery in the various batteries along the river and in the rear many of them of very large calibre. The magazine contained an abundant supply of powder, but a small quantity of shot and shell. There was no loss in possession of the rebels at the time of the surrender. The flesh of mules had been dealt out for some time—short rations—to supply the want of beef. There were quite a number of mules inside the rebel works, and corn sufficient to have lasted the garrison a week longer.

THE SOURCE OF THE NILE.—After nearly a century of exploration, and the sacrifice of numerous valuable lives, the source of the Nile has at last been discovered by two English travelers, Speke and Grant. A letter from Egypt says the returned explorers give this information:

That the Nile springs from a Lake Victoria, which they profess to have circumnavigated, and found to be very extensive. That Kondogara is five degrees (less some minutes) from the equator in the northern hemisphere, at about the same latitude south of the lake, which, he says, is the source of the Bahriel-Biad or White Nile. They started from Zanzibar with 70 men; of these only 17 remain. The number was greatly diminished by desertion; others were lost by sickness and casualties. They had to fight their way to reach White river, but relate marvelous things of the sub-equatorial regions, and above all report large quantities of ivory.

READ, MOTHERS, READ!—How many a mother has waked up at MIDNIGHT AND FOUND HER CHILD BREATHING HARD, ATTENDED WITH PECULIAR WHEEZING OR BARKING COUGH, which would be relieved by the use of DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM, and repay, a thousand times the cost, by having it, once in time of need, to give relief to the struggling child? Then why delay in procuring a remedy for such a sudden disease, which is CARRYING OFF THOUSANDS OF OUR CHILDREN EVERY YEAR?

EVERY FAMILY should keep this medicine constantly on hand, for old and young should use it for all affections of the throat and lungs.

Sore Eyes.

HAMILTON, OHIO, Oct. 19, 1859.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO.—Gents: Myself has been afflicted with sore eyes for several years. I tried the doctor's prescriptions, and all the remedies which I thought would do her any good, but all failed to cure her. I got DR. SCOTT'S LIVER PILLS, and, after the use of two boxes, she entirely recovered. I also find them the best Pills I ever used in my family for a Cathartic and Breaking up Fever and Cold. SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE DAILY OREGONIAN

LATER FROM the EAST.

Dates to August 20th.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The draft proceeded to-day without molestation, other than jolly remarks to those drafted. Steamer Empire City from Charleston, the 15th has arrived.

Port Royal News says the steamer Robert Habersham exploded in Savannah river, destroying the vessel and killing the crew.—Gen. Mercer, commander at Savannah, impressed on the 5th, all able bodied slaves of Georgia to work on fortifications. Several heavy siege guns have been sent from Savannah to Charleston.

The rebel ram Savannah, mate to the Atlanta, came down the river on the 20th intending to run out, but broke her engine and had to return.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—Last evening's Republican reports the greatest activity in the Army of the Potomac, indicating a change of base. The whole army is in defensive position, while the war is vigorously carried on elsewhere. Quite a number of furloughs have been granted to officers.

WASHINGTON, Aug. 19.—The government has received dispatches from Charleston, via Fortress Monroe, stating that on Friday and Saturday the bombardment was terrific. The action of the sea on Sunday prevented our boats from working, but they expected to join in the attack on Monday. A dispatch says Gen. Gilmore succeeded in reaching Charleston with one of his long range guns, and had thrown shot into the city to such an extent as to call forth a flag of truce from Beauregard. No special confirmation of this had been received, but it is believed.

BALTIMORE, Aug. 19.—The American has letters from its editor dated off Morris Island, five o'clock, P. M., which says the rebels piled sand bags on the wharf against the rear wall of Sumpter, forty feet high, to protect the magazines from Gilmore's shore guns. There were but few shots fired on Sunday. It is generally understood that an assault will be made to-morrow. The weather is favorable for operations. Gilmore's health is much better.

Private letters from the same source says we will have Fort Sumpter on Monday, certain.

NEW YORK, Aug. 19.—The Tribune has the following:

Headquarters of the Army of the Potomac, Aug. 17.—There are symptoms emphatic of a movement in the army. Troops have left Alexandria for New York last week, and more will follow. The time for advance on Richmond not arrived.

The Army of the Potomac will probably retire to points near Washington and defend that and the line of the Potomac, and after the operations in the south have been successful, will renew its march on the rebel Capital in conjunction with the troops approaching in other directions.

The Times' special says the impression prevails that the rebels are preparing for a cavalry movement on our rear to destroy railroads.

NEW YORK, Aug. 20.—Money easy at 6 and 7. Gold lower—opening at 25¼ and closing dull at 24¼ @ 24¾.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Aug. 19.—The democratic convention met at 10 A. M., and resolved to proceed with the session with closed doors, and to issue a series of resolutions instead of an address. A National Committee was appointed. Ex-Governor Hunt was called in, and after the interview, the convention adjourned sine die.

CINCINNATI, Aug. 20.—John A. Gurley, late member of Congress, died yesterday afternoon. He had been appointed Governor of Arizona.

MOTHERS! MOTHERS!! MOTHERS!!! Don't fail to procure MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for CHILDREN'S TEETHING. This valuable preparation is the prescription of one of the best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and has been used for thirty years with never-failing safety and success by millions of mothers and children, from the feeble infant of one week old to the adult.

It not only relieves the child from pain, but invigorates the stomach and bowels, corrects acidity, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. It will almost instantly relieve

GRIPING IN THE BOWELS AND WIND COLIC.

We believe it the best and surest remedy in the world in all cases of DYSENTERY and DIARRHŒA IN CHILDREN whether it arises from Teething or from any other cause.

Remarkable Cure of Cramps in the Stomach and Bowels.

CINCINNATI, May 31, 1863.

MESSRS. A. L. SCOVILL & CO: Last Winter I was attacked with cramps in the stomach and bowels, which beat me nearly double, and the pains were so great that it prostrated me; I tried your BAKER'S PAIN PANACEA in frequent doses, which relieved me at once, and their influence to the very extremities of my limbs, and have not been troubled with any similar attack since. I have been traveling during the spring in the country, and I came across many who had severe attacks of diarrhœa, and I gave them a few doses of the PAIN PANACEA, which cured them immediately. I also recommended it to a man who had a severe headache, and it gave instant relief by bathing thoroughly with it.

Men in Every Age of the World. the professions have been slow to admit the value of new discoveries, or the expediency of adopting them in practice. It is not to be legal profession that we look for reforms in Jurisprudence, neither do we find the advocates of medical reform among physicians. Each deprecates whatever is found to emanate upon received opinions and established usages. Hence the opposition which all medical innovators often exhibit to the use of private remedies, whatever their acknowledged value, or great efficiency in the cure of disease. No medicine has ever done more for the relief of human suffering than DR. OSGOOD'S INDIA CHOLAGOGUE. The certainty with which it cures Fever and Ague, and eradicates bile from the system is acknowledged by all. Do you prefer a speedy and effectual cure to a regular and orthodox run of disease? Try the Cholagogue, and the object is accomplished. Then tell your suffering neighbor what it has done for you, that it may do the same for him. For sale everywhere.

CIRCUIT COURT.—By adjournment, the special term will be continued to day at ten o'clock, for hearing chancery causes. We are informed that some proceeding, involving the respective rights of Lowsdale, Coffin and Newman—names not entirely unknown upon the records of the Courts of this County and State—is expected to come up for hearing.

STATE PAPERS.—We are indebted to S. J. Cornwinck and Charles Barrett for an assortment of late Eastern papers, containing detailed accounts of the New York riot; also, Harper's Magazine for August.

EASTERN MAIL.—The stage was somewhat later than usual in arriving last night, in consequence of a very large mail from the East. Various expectants of letters from their friends at "Home," may now perhaps have their expectations realized.

LOW WATER.—The Willamette river at this point is now lower than it has been at any time during this year.

ORGANIZED.—A military company was organized last night called the "Washington Guards." They adopted a constitution and by-laws.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.—Messrs. Cohen, Lyon & Co. have a large stock of dry goods, clothing and general merchandise.

Cahn & Co. have Donnolly & Co.'s superior yeast powders for sale in any quantity.

Hurgren & Shindler will sell from a splendid assortment of furniture, to any one who chooses to buy from them at the corner of First and Salmon streets.

A new road has been opened from Portland to the Dalles.

Savier & King pay the highest price for gold dust: also, have gold bars for sale.

G. Randall has "Greenbacks" for sale.

Vallandigham Contradicted.

The Cincinnati Commercial makes a statement of facts which entirely refute the assertions of the Ohio rebel:

We have better authority than that of Vallandigham for the fact that there is developed in the States of Tennessee and Louisiana, particularly, an intense weariness of the war. This is the universal report of all observers from those States, and we confidently anticipate, now that Bragg has been driven across the Tennessee river, and Port Hudson has fallen, that the disposition of the people of those States to yield to the pressure of arms and come in good faith into the Union, will have manifestations that cannot be overlooked or disregarded. Vallandigham had no opportunity of associating with the southern people. He was constantly in the company of those most deeply committed to the cause of rebellion, and, being recognized as a sympathizer with the rebellion, he was, of course, treated by those whom he met, as men of well-known opinions usually are, to the echo of those opinions. He is the last man in the world from whom a southern Union man would confide his desires and hopes. He passed through East Tennessee by railroad, and, according to his statement, saw no man, woman or child there not prepared to be a living sacrifice on the bloody altar of secession. But Burnside, Saunders, who commanded the expedition of United States cavalry into that region, and burned the bridges over which Vallandigham passed, a few days after his presence, assured us that he found more demonstrations of loyalty, more unequivocal general and unselfish devotion to the cause of the Union, in East Tennessee, than in any other part of the country, not excepting the northern States, that he has visited during the war.—The men, women and children cheered him on the way, with such emotion that he says he has not at times reminded of the scenes he had witnessed at camp-meetings. Vallandigham was not in a position, and was not the person, to see anything of southern Unionism."

EXPLANATION BY A NEW YORK RIOTER OF WHAT IS IN THE CONSTITUTION.—One of the parties abused by the rioters in New York, testified in the court of Justice Welsh, as follows:

These men came to my house, and one of them, advancing to the table, struck it a blow with a heavy club which he carried, and said: "Do you know what we come for?"—I replied, "I do not." "Do you know the Constitution?" "No" "Well," said the ruffian, "I will tell you; it is to rip and tear, and carry off niggers' property and kill d—d niggers."

THE IDEA OF THE REBELLION.—The Wheeling Intelligencer relates a conversation held with an intelligent rebel officer recently made prisoner by our troops. On being asked what his idea of the rebellion was—what it apprehends in its purposes—what, in other words, was its philosophy—he replied that, in a word, it was slavery; that the rebel chiefs wanted a homogeneous slave holding Confederation, where the people would all be united by one central interest and have one common bond of sympathy."

EXASPERATING THE SOUTH.—Some of the Copperhead papers have a great deal to say about the danger and imprudence of exasperating the south. A cotemporary says he has, in regard to this matter, as the man who said he didn't care how late he was out after midnight, as his wife was already mad at that time as mad as she could be.

The steamer Brother Jonathan arrived at San Francisco on Tuesday morning last, having a very large crowd of passengers, and $39,775 in treasure from Portland and $63,-000 from Victoria.

SCARCITY OF FLOUR.—At last accounts there was a great scarcity of flour in the Boise market. The supply on hand was equal to but very few week's consumption, and the selling rate was fifty cents per pound.—Entaineer.

"Pa," said a lad to his father, "I have often read of people poor but honest; why don't they sometimes say rich but honest?" "Tut, tut, my son," replied the father, "nobody would believe them."

Fernando Would.

Lives there a man in all the earth,
Whose only hope and aim is power,
Who labors for it night and day,
Nor drives it from his thoughts an hour,
Who in his mad mad love for it
Would break the Union if he could,
And bow his neck to slavery's yoke?
Yes there is one, Fernando would.

Breathes there a man who for power,
Would [illegible] our honest [illegible] and then
Demand in stirring tones [illegible]
Of measures or a change of men,"
Who hates to see an honest man
Standing where traitors lately stood,
And would remove him if he'd power?
Yes there is one, Fernando would.

Lives there a man who in his zeal
To gain the votes of those who toil,
Would pledge their interests to sustain,
In words as mild [illegible]
And when by that means raised to power,
Assuming quite another mood,
Would give past pledges to the wind?
Yes there is one, Fernando would.

Breathes there a man on Freedom's soil,
Who owing all to Liberty,
Can boldly stand up and affirm
There is no such thing as loyalty;
Yet serves the devil with more zeal
Than even his archangels could,
And would give all to aid his cause?
Thank God! but one, Fernando would.

The Catholic Church Opposed to Slavery—Views of General Rosecrans.

For some weeks past a controversy has been going on between The Catholic Telegraph of Cincinnati, edited by the Very Rev. E. Purcell, brother of the distinguished Archbishop of Cincinnati, and a proslavery Catholic journal of that city. The editor of The Telegraph insists and proves that the Catholic Church and Slavery have never got along well together; that the Church abolished that peculiar institution wherever she came in contact with it, and it is only in America Catholics have ever been found advocating slavery. The controversy has called forth the following letter from Major-General Rosecrans, which appears in a late number of The Telegraph. The editor says: "He (Rosecrans) has never been an abolitionist, and has, like ourselves stood up for the Democracy."

MURFREESBORO, April 27, 1863.

MY DEAR FATHER EDWARD: The rebels grabbed the last letter I wrote you but they will draw very little consolation from its contents. * * * * *

I am happy to see the splendid stand you took in The Telegraph against slavery, with its horrors, barbarities and base immoralities. Slavery is dead. Nothing can resuscitate it. To learn this fact fully, you should pay us a visit. There is not a negro in the South who does not know he is free. Around here they have squatted on the plantations, and refuse to work for any one but themselves. They have sown little crops of their own, and their masters have ceased to exercise any control over them.

It is needless for me to say that I applaud every sentiment you have expressed in The Telegraph. Your course is that of the prudent navigator, who watching the black speck on the horizon, sees it expand into a portentous storm, and calls upon his crew to take in sail and prepare for a contest with the elements. The storm will pass away and you will be found sailing under full sail, while those who took not heed will be scattered by the gale. * * *

I am heart and hand with you in this cause. Slavery is doomed, and those who would now uphold it will be held up in a very short time to public odium and execration. No statesman will vindicate it, no friend of human progress will stretch forth a hand to break its fall, no lover of humanity and religion will grieve for its overthrow. I have lived long enough in the South to see its workings, its disgusting features, debasing the higher principles of our nature, warring with religion, and patronizing vice and immorality. Almighty God has certainly ordained its destruction in this country, where it has been more offensive and immoral than in any other, and until it is utterly extinct this war cannot, from the nature of things, cease. I am in favor of a cessation of hostilities at as early a day as possible; therefore, I am in favor of the President's Proclamation. This State was made for white people and free labor, and when slavery no longer blights its borders we may expect to see the church and the school-house take the place of the slave-pen and market.

TOO MANY GENERALS.—Allusion has been made to the fact that the Army of the West has not demanded so many Generals as that of the Potomac, and that may be accounted for by observing that the latter army is too near Washington; and the fact that it is too near Washington is often adduced as a reason why the Army of the Potomac does not win more victories, compared with the Western Army. Possibly that is true, but not in the way that the grumblers aver. The Army of the Potomac is near enough to Washington, it is true, to be continually interfered with by the authorities here, and it is also near enough to permit its Colonels, brigadiers and Major Generals to be rushing in at every frequent breathing spell in pursuit of promotion, changes, and various other favors for themselves, friends and favorites; therefore, it is no slander to say that the army is one vast hot bed of bickerings, heart-burnings and jealousies; that is a hard thing to say, but it is true as the Book. The President says that the changes and promotions in the Army of the Potomac cost him more anxiety than the campaigns. He also says—and he ought to know—that the ratio of men to Generals in that army, is now just 800 men to each General. This is partly owing to the fact that many of the regiments are such only in name—Their ranks having been decimated, and the remnants are being consolidated or recruited. These skeleton regiments make skeleton brigades, and a skeleton brigadier too often commands what is not equivalent to one full regiment. The famous Excelsior Brigade went into the Gettysburg fight with 1,000 men. The First Corps had in the fight when its commander, General Reynolds, was killed, only four thousand men, all told, and yet that corps had all its paraphernalia of Major Generals of divisions and Brigadier Generals of brigades. This is not so in the West, where they have been too far off to ask much for promotions, and where Colonels command brigades and divisions also. This vice of promotion is of recent growth, for at the first battle of Bull Run Hunter was a Colonel, but commanded a corps, and Miles, of Harper's Ferry notoriety, occupied the same position with the same rank. But a couple of years in the vicinity of Washington, and frequent visits here, and familiar acquaintance with Congressmen, have all conspired to make a change in our favorite, much abused Army of the Potomac. The Western Army has more time for fighting, and when you hear that the other army is too near Washington to be successful greatly, it will be well also to recollect that its usefulness can be impaired in other ways than the official meddling which it is popular to believe is the rule here.—Cor. Sac. Union.

Commission and Purchasing AGENT, SAN FRANCISCO.

ORDERS FOR THE PURCHASE OF MERCHANDISE and articles of every description are solicited by the undersigned.

A residence in this city of over ten years, and an experience in the business of nearly the same length of time, are considered sufficient to warrant the confidence of persons in the country who occasionally require to make purchases here, through the agency of a reliable party, or who may be looking for a permanent agent in San Francisco. To either the advertiser offers his services, assuring all who intrust orders to him that no effort shall be spared to execute their commissions satisfactorily.

All Orders must be accompanied with the Cash or City Reference.

Those desiring information concerning the undersigned are referred to

WM. T. COLEMAN & Co., San Francisco.
J. H. COGHILL & Co.,
C. LANGLEY, Druggist,

BUCHTEL & CARDWELL'S PICTURES ARE THE BEST IN OREGON

HELMBOLD'S Genuine Preparation.

'HIGHLY CONCENTRATED' Compound Fluid

EXTRACT BUCHU,

A POSITIVE AND SPECIFIC REMEDY

FOR DISEASES OF THE

BLADDER, KIDNEYS, GRAVEL

AND

DROPSICAL SWELLINGS.

This Medicine increases the power of DIGESTION and excites the ABSORBENTS into healthy action, by which the WATERY or CALCEROUS depositions, and all UNNATURAL ENLARGEMENTS are reduced, as well as PAIN and INFLAMMATION, and is good for MEN, WOMEN OR CHILDREN.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

For Weakness arising from Excesses, Habits of Dissipation, Early Indiscretion or Abuse,

ATTENDED WITH THE FOLLOWING SYMPTOMS:

Indisposition to Exertion,	Loss of Power,
Loss of Memory,	Difficulty of Breathing,
Weak Nerves,	Trembling,
Horror of Disease,	Wakefulness,
Dimness of Vision,	Pain in the Back,
Universal Lassitude of the Muscular System,
Hot Hands,	Flushing of the Body,
Dryness of the Skin,	Eruptions on the Face,
Pallid Countenance.

These symptoms if allowed to go, which this medicine invariably removes, soon follows

Impotency, Fatuity, Epileptic Fits,

IN ONE OF WHICH THE PATIENT MAY EXPIRE.

Who can say that they are not frequently followed by those "direful diseases,"

"INSANITY AND CONSUMPTION,"

Many are aware of the cause of their suffering, BUT NONE WILL CONFESS

THE RECORDS OF THE INSANE ASYLUMS,

And the melancholy deaths by Consumption bear ample witness to the truth of the assertion that

THE CONSTITUTION,

once affected by Organic Weakness,

Requires the Aid of Medicine,

to strengthen and invigorate the system, which invariably does.

A Trial will Convince the most Skeptical.

FEMALES! FEMALES!! FEMALES!!!

OLD OR YOUNG,

Single, Married or contemplating Marriage.

IN MANY AFFECTIONS PECULIAR TO FEMALES, the Extract of Buchu is unequalled by any other remedy as in Chlorosis or Retention, Irregularity, Painfulness, or Suppression of Customary Evacuations, Ulcerated or Schirrous state of the Uterus, Leucorrhœa or Whites, Sterility, and for all complaints incident to the Sex, whether arising from Indiscretion, Habits of Dissipation, or in the DECLINE OR CHANGE OF LIFE!

(See symptoms above.)

No Family should be without it.

TAKE NO MORE BALSAM, MERCURY, OR UNPLEASANT MEDICINE FOR UNPLEASANT AND DANGEROUS DISEASES.

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU,

AND

HELMBOLD'S IMPROVED ROSE WASH

CURES SECRET DISEASES,

In all their Stages;	At Little Expense;
Little or no Change in Diet;	No Inconvenience,

AND NO EXPOSURE.

It causes a frequent desire and gives strength to Urinate, thereby Removing Obstructions, Preventing and Curing Strictures of the Urethra, allaying Pain and Inflammation, so frequent in the class of Diseases, and expelling all Poisonous, diseased and worn out matter.

THOUSANDS UPON THOUSANDS

Who have been the victims of Quacks

and who have paid heavy fees to be cured in a short time, have found they were deceived, and that the "POISON" has, by the use of "Powerful Astringents," been dried up in the system, to break out in a more aggravated form, and perhaps after marriage.

Use Helmbold's Extract Buchu

For all Affections and Diseases of the URINARY ORGANS, whether existing in MALE OR FEMALE, from whatever cause originating, and

NO MATTER OF HOW LONG STANDING.

Diseases of these Organs require the aid of a Diuretic,

HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU

IS THE GREAT DIURETIC,

And it is certain to have the desired effect in Diseases for which it is recommended.

Evidence

of the most responsible and reliable character will accompany the medicines.

Certificates of Cures

From Eight to Twenty Years standing, with names known to science and fame.

"PHYSICIANS," PLEASE "NOTICE."

We make no "secret" of "Ingredients." HELMBOLD'S EXTRACT BUCHU is composed of Buchu, Cubebs, Juniper Berries, selected with great care by a competent Druggist. Prepared in vacuo, by H. T. HELMBOLD, Practical and Analytical Chemist, and Sole Manufacturer of Helmbold's Genuine Preparations.

AFFIDAVIT.

Personally appeared before me, an Alderman of the city of Philadelphia, H. T. HELMBOLD, who being duly sworn, doth say his preparations contain no narcotic, no mercury, or other injurious drugs, but are purely vegetable.

H. T. HELMBOLD.

Sworn and subscribed before me, this 23d day of November, 1854.

INDUCED by the extensive sale and universal popularity of Hoofland's German Bitters (purely vegetable), hosts of ignorant Quacks and unscrupulous adventurers, have opened upon suffering humanity the flood gates of Nostrums in the shape of poor Whisky, vilely compounded with injurious drugs, and christened Tonics, Stomachics and Bitters.

Beware of the innumerable array of Alcoholic preparations in plethoric bottles and big bellied kegs, under the modest appellation of Bitters; which, instead of curing, only aggravate disease, and leave the disappointed sufferer in despair.

Hoofland's German Bitters

Are not a new and untried article, but have stood the test of fifteen years trial by the American public, and their reputation and sale are not rivalled by any similar preparation.

The proprietors have thousands of letters from the most eminent

CLERGYMEN,
LAWYERS,
PHYSICIANS,
AND CITIZENS,

Testifying of their own personal knowledge, to the beneficial effects and medical virtues of these Bitters.

Do you want something to strengthen you?
Do you want a good appetite?
Do you want to build up your constitution?
Do you want to feel well?
Do you want to get rid of nervousness?
Do you want energy?
Do you want to sleep well?
Do you want a brisk and vigorous feeling?

If so, use HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

From Rev. J. Newton Brown, D. D., Editor of the Encyclopedia of Religious Knowledge.

Although not disposed to favor or recommend Patent Medicines in general, through distrust of their ingredients and effects; I yet know of no sufficient reasons why a man may not testify to the benefit he believes himself to have received from any simple preparation, in the hope that he may thus contribute to the benefit of others.

I do this the more readily in regard to Hoofland's German Bitters, prepared by Dr. C. M. Jackson, of this city, because I was prejudiced against them for many years, under the impression that they were chiefly an alcoholic mixture. I am indebted to my friend, Robert Shoemaker, Esq., for the removal of this prejudice by proper tests, and for encouragement to try them, when suffering from great and long continued debility. The use of three bottles of these Bitters at the beginning of the present year, was followed by evident relief, and restoration to a degree of bodily and mental vigor which I had not felt for six months before, and had almost despaired of regaining. I therefore thank God and my friend for directing me to the use of them.

PHILADELPHIA, June [illegible] J. NEWTON BROWN.

PARTICULAR NOTICE.

There are many preparations sold under the name of Bitters, put up in quart bottles, compounded of the cheapest whiskey or common rum, costing from 20 to 40 cents per gallon, the taste disguised by Anise or Coriander Seed. This class of Bitters has caused and will continue to cause, as long as they can be sold, hundreds to die the death of the drunkard. By their use the system is kept continually under the influence of Alcoholic Stimulants of the worst kind, the desire for Liquor is created and kept up, and the result is all the horrors attendant upon a drunkard's life and death.

For those who desire and will have a Liquor Bitters, we publish the following receipt: Get One Bottle Hoofland's German Bitters and mix with Three Quarts of Good Brandy or Whiskey, and the result will be a preparation that will far excel in medicinal virtues and true excellence any of the numerous Liquor Bitters in the market, and will cost much less. You will have all the virtues of Hoofland's Bitters in connection with a good article of Liquor, at a much less price than these inferior preparations will cost you.

ATTENTION, SOLDIERS!

AND THE FRIENDS OF SOLDIERS.

We call the attention of all having relations or friends in the army to the fact that "HOOFLAND'S German Bitters" will cure nine-tenths of the diseases induced by exposures and privations incident to camp life. In the lists, published almost daily in the newspapers, on the arrival of the sick, it will be noticed that a very large proportion are suffering from debility. Every case of that kind can be readily cured by Hoofland's German Bitters. Diseases resulting from disorders of the digestive organs are speedily removed. We have no hesitation in stating that, if these Bitters were freely used among our soldiers, hundreds of lives might be saved that otherwise would be lost.

We call particular attention to the following remarkable and well authenticated cure of one of the nation's heroes, whose life, to use his own language, "has been saved by the Bitters:"

PHILADELPHIA, August [illegible]

Messrs. Jones & Evans.—Well, gentlemen, your Hoofland's German Bitters has saved my life. There is no mistake in this. It is vouched for by numbers of my comrades, some of whose names are appended, and who were fully cognizant of all the circumstances of my case. I am, and have been for the last four years, a member of Sherman's celebrated battery, and under the immediate command of Captain R. B. Ayres. Through the exposure attendant upon my arduous duties, I was attacked in November last with inflammation of the lungs, and was for seventy two days in the hospital. This was followed by great debility, heightened by an attack of dysentery. I was then removed from the White House, and sent to this city on board the steamer State of Maine, from which I landed on the 28th of June. Since that time I have been about as low as one could be and still retain a spark of vitality. For a week or more I was scarcely able to swallow anything, and if I did force a morsel down, it was immediately thrown up again.

I could not even keep a glass of water on my stomach. Life could not last under these circumstances; and, accordingly, the physicians who had been working faithfully, though unsuccessfully, to rescue me from the grasp of the dread Archer, frankly told me they could do no more for me, and advised me to see a clergyman, and to make such disposition of my limited funds as best suited me. An acquaintance who visited me at the hospital, Mr. Frederick Steinbron, of Sixth below Arch Street, advised me, as a forlorn hope, to try your Bitters, and kindly procured a bottle. From the time I commenced taking them the gloomy shadow of death receded, and I am now, thank God for it, getting better. Though I have taken but two bottles, I have gained ten pounds, and I feel sanguine of being permitted to rejoin my wife and daughter, from whom I have heard nothing for eighteen months: for, gentlemen, I am a loyal Virginian, from the vicinity of Front Royal. To your invaluable Bitters I owe the certainty of life which has taken the place of vague fears—to your Bitters will I owe the glorious privilege of again clasping to my bosom those who are dearest to me in life.

Very truly yours, ISAAC MALONE.

We fully concur in the truth of the above statement, as we had despaired of seeing our comrade, Mr. Malone, restored to life.
